A reminder of our audit plan:

- We determined materiality as £20.8m and a reporting threshold of £417,000.
- We identified 4 significant risks in our Audit Plan and have not made any changes from the scope set out in the Audit Plan.
- A controls based audit approach has not been considered appropriate for the current year; instead we have taken a substantive approach to testing the financial statements.

The big picture

The Big Picture

We anticipate issuing an unmodified audit opinion upon completion of our work.

Audit work

- We have discussed our initial comments on the draft financial statements with management.
- From our audit work on the financial statements we have not identified any material misstatements or significant deficiencies in internal controls at the North Yorkshire Pension Fund. A small number of comments on the annual report and accounts have been identified which we understand will be corrected by management.
- A draft representation letter has been included at Appendix 5.
- From our work undertaken so far we expect to issue an unmodified opinion in line with your specified deadlines. A draft opinion is included at Appendix 6

We have the following principal matters to complete:

- final review and close down procedures;
- subsequent events review; and
- receipt of signed letter of representation.

Significant audit risks

This section explains the nature of significant risks, how these risks have been addressed by our audit work and our conclusions. We also explain related presentational and/ or disclosure matters within the financial statements.

1. Contributions

There are complexities around the calculation of contributions.

Nature of risk

Unlike the position in the private sector, we are not required to issue a separate statement on contributions for the Fund. Nevertheless, this remains a material income stream and in view of the complexity arising from the participation of different employers within the Fund, the fact that members pay a tiered contribution rate depending on their pensionable pay and that additional complexities were introduced to the employer contribution rates from 1 April 2011, we have included the calculation and payment of contributions as an area of significant risk.

The significant risk in relation to management override, its impact on the financial statements and our audit challenge

We note that the authority is not responsible for the calculation of contributions and that any tests to ensure the accuracy of contributions have been undertaken with the assistance of the other scheduled and admitted bodies. Given the material nature of contributions, incorrect calculation of employee/employer contributions by contributing bodies could lead to a material error.

Audit work completed to address the significant risk

We have performed the following testing to address the significant risks around contributions:

- reviewed the design and implementation of controls present at the Fund for ensuring contributions from the Administering Authority and all Scheduled and Admitted bodies are identified and calculated correctly;
- we selected a sample of members from the Administering, Scheduled and Admitted bodies and reviewed breakdowns by individual of pensionable pay, employee and employer contributions. On a sample basis we agreed this information to individual payslips and reviewed whether the contributions tested were calculated correctly in all material respects; and
- we developed an expectation based on changes in membership numbers and changes in contribution rates to analytically review the contributions received in the year.

Conclusion on contributions risk

All testing was completed with satisfactory results.

Deloitte view

From our testing set out below there are no matters to bring to the attention of those charged with governance.

2. Benefits

There are complexities surrounding the calculation of both benefits in retirement and ill health and death benefits.

Nature of risk

Changes were made to the Fund from April 2008 which introduced complexities into the calculation of both benefits in retirement and ill health and death benefits. In respect of benefits in retirement, benefits are accumulated on two different bases for service pre and post 1 April 2008. The calculation of the pensionable pay on which benefits will depend may be varied by the individual opting to take account of pay earned in any of the 10 years prior to retirement. Also individuals enjoy greater flexibility in their choice of the mix of pensions and lump sum. In respect of ill health and death benefits, the calculation of the pensionable pay on which benefits will depend may be varied by the individual opting to take account of pay earned in any of the 10 years prior to retirement. The Government has completed the process to amend the revaluation and index factors for statutory minimum uplift from the Retail Price Index to the Consumer Price Index. This change has further increased the complexity of benefit calculations. Furthermore, it is noted that some employers may not have retained the necessary records to enable these calculations to be undertaken by the Fund. The value of benefits paid is material to the financial statements and hence represents an area of significant risk in its own right.

The significant risk in relation to management override, its impact on the financial statements and our audit challenge

The significant number of Benefits paid each year means that incorrect calculations could yield a material error. Given that payments are made based on clearly defined rules, there is very limited scope for management judgement in this area.

Audit work completed to address the significant risk

The following tests were performed to address the significant risk around benefits:

- we reviewed the design and implementation of controls present at the Fund for ensuring the accuracy, completeness and validity of benefits through discussion with the pensions team and testing to controls were in force during the year under review;
- we performed tests of detail, on a sample of benefits paid, by agreement to supporting calculations and other documentation, to test whether benefits were in all material respects correctly calculated, by reference to their qualifying service, fund rules and benefit choices made;
- we developed an expectation based on changes in membership numbers and Pension Increases Act to analytically review the benefits paid in the year; and
- we considered on a sample basis whether any changes in benefit rates were applied on a timely basis and correctly calculated.

Conclusion on benefits risk

All testing was completed with satisfactory results.

Deloitte view

From our testing of benefits as set out below there are no matters to bring to the attention of those charged with governance.

3. Investments

There are areas of judgement involved in the valuation of investments.

Nature of risk

The pension fund's investments include derivatives, absolute return vehicles and quoted property funds. The pension fund invests in derivative financial instruments. These investments are more complex to measure, account for and disclose. Accordingly we have treated the appropriateness of the accounting and disclosure of these investments as a specific risk for our audit. The valuation of absolute returns and property funds is normally undertaken by the fund managers.

The significant risk in relation to management override, its impact on the financial statements and our audit challenge

Judgements are taken by the Investment Managers to value those investments whose prices are not publically available. The material nature of Investments means that any error in judgement could result in a material valuation error.

Audit work completed to address the significant risk

The following tests were performed to address the significant risk around investments:

- we have reviewed the design and implementation of controls present at the Fund for ensuring investments are valued correctly;
- we have assessed the competence and independence of the valuers used by the Fund. We have obtained internal control reports, where available, for investment managers reviewed the controls in place around valuation to identify any weaknesses;
- we have reconciled the total value of the investments held by the Fund as reported in the custodian report from Bank of New York Mellon to the value of investments reported in the Net Assets Statement;
- we have compared the valuations provided by Northern Trust to the reports provided by the investment managers noting only clearly trivial differences;
- as the year end valuation of derivatives is not clearly trivial our work has been limited to the testing of sales and purchases which are material;
- we have performed a test of detail on a sample basis of the absolute return vehicle (ECM) and quoted property fund (Hermes) compared the value reported by the Bank of New York Mellon to the quoted price obtained from Bloomberg and other independent sources. Where the absolute return vehicle is not quoted (Standard Life and Newton) we have, where possible, reviewed post year-end sales and purchases to confirm that the year-end value is a fair market price. Where this has not been possible we have performed further analytical procedures using quoted information on returns and considered the issues identified in the AAF report; and
- we have reviewed the disclosure notes and agreed these to supporting documentation.

Conclusion on investment risk

We have reviewed the additional disclosure included within the draft accounts. A number of minor errors were identified, reported to management and subsequently corrected. Two immaterial differences were identified as part of our testing of investments (Appendix1).

Deloitte view

From our testing of investments as set out below there are two immaterial differences on the valuation of certain investment to bring to the attention of those charged with governance.

4. Management override of controls

We have focused on the testing of journals, significant accounting estimates, and any unusual transactions in the year.

Nature of risk

International Standards on Auditing requires auditors to identify a presumed risk of management override of control. This presumed risk cannot be rebutted by the auditor. This recognises that management may be able to override controls that are in place to present inaccurate or even fraudulent financial reports.

The significant risk in relation to management override, its impact on the financial statements and our audit challenge

Any significant judgements made by management could materially impact the financial statements. Items that are particularly of audit interest are estimates and provisions that have been put into the year-end accounts.

Audit work completed to address the significant risk

We have performed the following audit procedures:

- reviewed the processes and performed design and implementation work on the controls management have in place;
- used our 'Audit Analytics' software to test a risk focused sample of journals to ensure the appropriateness;
- reviewed accounting estimates for evidence of bias; and
- reviewed the business rationale of any significant transactions that are outside the normal course of business for the Fund.

Conclusion on management override of controls risk

All testing was completed with satisfactory results.

Deloitte view

From our testing of a risk based sample of journals and review of Committee minutes, we do not consider management's estimates to be unreasonable and nor have we identified any evidence of bias.

This section focuses on the annual report, as well as the sufficiency of other required disclosures. In particular, we are required to consider whether we have identified any inconsistencies between our knowledge acquired during the audit and the disclosures.

Your annual report— our review and insights

Our review of your annual report

We highlight a number of observations from our audit procedures

Financial reporting

The Annual Report is required to be prepared in accordance with Code of Practice on Local Authority Accounting 2013/14 and the additional requirements of regulation 34 of the Local Government Pension Scheme (Administration) Regulations 2008 ("Regulation 34")

Management provided a copy of the draft accounts by 30 June 2014 which is in accordance with the statutory deadline. A first draft of the Annual Report which includes the additional information required by Regulation 34 was provided to audit on 21 August 2013.

We have reviewed the disclosures in the accounts against the current version of the Local Government Pension Accounts and Disclosure checklist. We have identified a number of minor points that have been corrected by management. We have also considered the completeness of the additional information and noted that this is in accordance with the requirements of Regulation 34.

Accounting policy 1

The accounting policies have been prepared in accordance with the Code of Practice on Local Authority Accounting 2013/14

Management update the accounting policies on an annual basis and present these to the Audit Committee for their consideration.

There are no matters to bring to your attention from our review of the Fund's accounting policies.

Other disclosure matter

A statement on the IAS 19 position has been prepared by the Actuary

In accordance with the Code of Practice on Local Authority Accounting 2013/14 the Fund is required to include details of the actuarial present value of promised retirement benefits. In 2013/14 the Fund has continued to adopt a format C presentation, meaning that the report is appended to the accounts.

In accordance with the guidance issued by the Audit Commission when an authority adopt a format C presentation for the actuarial present value of promised retirement benefits then this information is not subject to audit. Our procedures have therefore been limited to considering the consistency of this information with knowledge gained during our audit.

In this section we set out our comments regarding your internal control and risk management processes. We communicate any significant deficiencies in the internal control environment to the Audit Committee.

Insight - Internal control and risk management

Liaison with internal audit

The audit team, following an assessment of the independence and competence of the internal audit department, reviewed the work of internal audit and considered any impact upon our risk assessment. We did not place direct reliance on the work of internal audit.

Responsibility Statement

Purpose of our report and responsibility statement

Our report is designed to help you meet your governance duties

What we report

Our report is designed to help the Audit Committee discharge their governance duties. It also represents one way in which we fulfil our obligations under ISA 260 to communicate with you regarding your oversight of the financial reporting process and your governance requirements. Our report includes:

- results of our work on key audit judgements;
- our views on the effectiveness of your system of internal control relevant to risks that may affect financial reporting; and
- Other insights we have identified from our audit.

What we don't report

- As you will be aware, our audit was not designed to identify all matters that may be relevant to the Fund.
- Also, there will be further information you need to discharge your governance responsibilities, such as matters reported on by management or by other specialist advisers.
- Finally, our views on internal controls and business risk assessment should not be taken as comprehensive or as an opinion on effectiveness since they have been based solely on the audit procedures performed in the audit of the financial statements.

The scope of our work

- Our observations are developed in the context of our audit of the financial statements.
- We described the scope of our work in our audit plan dated June 2014 and the supplementary "Briefing on audit matters" which was circulated as an appendix to the Audit Plan.

We welcome the opportunity to discuss our report with you and receive your feedback.

Disclosure deficiencies

From our work to date we have identified a small number of comments on the financial statements which have been discussed with management and we understand they are intending to correct these within the final version of the financial statements. We will confirm these have been corrected as part of our final review of the financial statements.

Appendix 2: Fraud: responsibilities and representations

Required representations

We have asked the Members to confirm in writing that you have disclosed to us the results of your own assessment of the risk that the financial statements may be materially misstated as a result of fraud and that you are not aware of any fraud or suspected fraud that affects the entity or group.

Concerns

No concerns have been identified from whistle blowing procedures from the work noted above and our audit procedures.

Audit work performed

In our planning we identified the risk of management override of controls as key audit risks for your organisation.

During course of our audit, we have had discussions with management and those charged with governance. We have made direct enquiries in relation to any fraud risk factors and instances of fraud during the year. Our testing of journals provides comfort over the risk of management override of controls which was raised as a fraud risk.

In addition, we have reviewed management's own documented procedures regarding the fraud and error in the financial statements.

We have reviewed the paper prepared by management for Pension Fund Committee and the Audit Committee on the process for identifying, evaluating and managing the system of internal financial control.

The primary responsibility for the prevention and detection of fraud rests with management and those charged with governance, including establishing and maintaining internal controls over the reliability of financial reporting, effectiveness and efficiency of operations and compliance with applicable laws and regulations. As auditors, we obtain reasonable, but not absolute, assurance that the financial statements as a whole are free from material misstatement, whether caused by fraud or error.

Appendix 3: Independence and fees

As part of our obligations under International Standards on Auditing (UK and Ireland) we are required to report to you on the matters listed below:

Independence confirmation

We confirm that we comply with APB Ethical Standards for Auditors and that, in our professional judgement, we are independent and our objectivity is not compromised.

Fees

We have not provided any non-audit services in the period from 1 April 2013 to 31 March 2014

Non-audit services

In our opinion there are no inconsistencies between APB Ethical Standards for Auditors and the Authority's policy for the supply of non-audit services or of any apparent breach of that policy. We continue to review our independence and ensure that appropriate safeguards are in place including, but not limited to, the rotation of senior partners and professional staff and the involvement of additional partners and professional staff to carry out reviews of the work performed and to otherwise advise as necessary.

Relationships

There are no other relationships with North Yorkshire Pension Fund which would impact on our objectivity and independence.

The professional fees earned by Deloitte in the period from 1 April 2013 to 31 March 2014 are as follows:

| | Current year £000 | Prior year £000 |
|---------------------------------------|----------------------|--------------------|
| Audit of North Yorkshire Pension Fund | 24 | 24 |
| Total | 24 | 24 |

In March 2014 the Audit Commission agreed a rebate to be distributed across local audit bodies. The announcement came following a meeting of the Audit Commission's Board, who met to discuss the strategy for managing any retained earnings prior to its closure at the end of March 2015. The decision was made as part of the Board's role in setting the Commission's strategy and objectives and for determining its budget and the way it carries out its functions. The rebate was set at 13.7 per cent of the 2012/13 annual audit fee. The rebate sent to North Yorkshire County Council in respect of the North Yorkshire Pension Fund was £3,413.

Appendix 4: Our approach to audit quality

Recognition of and further impetus for our quality agenda

Audit quality is our number one priority. We pride ourselves on our commitment to quality and our quality control procedures. We have an unyielding pursuit of quality in order to deliver consistent, objective and insightful assurance.

The Financial Reporting Council (“FRC”) issues an Annual Report on Audit Quality Inspections, providing an overview of the activities of its Audit Quality Review (“AQR”) team for the year.

“The firm places considerable emphasis on its overall systems of quality control and, in most areas, has appropriate policies and procedures in place for its size and the nature of its client base. Nevertheless, we have identified certain areas where improvements are required to those policies and procedures...”

The firm took a number of steps in response to our prior year findings to achieve improvements in audit quality. This included enhanced guidance, technical communications and audit training on the recurring themes. However, issues continued to arise in some of these areas.”

AQR Report on Deloitte for 2013/14

<https://www.frc.org.uk/Our-Work/Publications/Audit-Quality-Review/Audit-Quality-Inspection-Report-May-2014-Deloitte.pdf>

Deloitte response

- Our strategic objective is to execute high quality, distinctive audits.
- We adopt an open and communicative approach with the regulator and their contribution to audit quality is respected and supported at all levels of our firm.
- We consider that the AQR’s report provides a balanced view of the focus and results of its inspections and its recognition of the emphasis we place on our overall systems of quality control is welcome.
- We value the regulator’s inspection and comments, and the review performed by the AQR forms an important part of our overall inspection process.
- As part of our agenda of continuous improvement we have given careful consideration to each of the FRC’s comments and recommendations. This has included investigation of the root causes of each finding. This has enabled us to develop, in conjunction with findings arising from our own quality review procedures, an effective response to the themes arising.
- Following the AQR review, we have implemented improvements to our audit procedures and our system of quality control.
- Deloitte’s Audit Transparency Report provides further information regarding our approach to delivering quality and is available on our website:
http://www.deloitte.com/view/en_GB/uk/about/annual-reports/index.htm

We will inform you if the AQR team selects your audit as part of their review for this year and will share its final report with you when it is complete.

Twelve of the audits reviewed by the AQR were performed to a good standard with limited improvements required and four audits required improvements. We were disappointed that one audit was assessed as requiring significant improvements in relation to the testing of the collective and individual loan loss provisions although this did not cause the AQR to doubt the validity of our audit opinion. The overall analysis of the AQR file reviews by grade for the last five years evidences that, among the largest firms, Deloitte remains at the forefront of audit quality with 67% of audits achieving the top grade from the AQR, the highest proportion amongst our peers.
