424. Quarterly Performance and Budget Monitoring Report

Considered – A joint report of the Chief Executive and the Corporate Director for Strategic Resources, bringing together key aspects of the County Council’s performance on a quarterly basis.

County Councillor David Chance introduced the Quarter 3 performance report, confirming the Council continued to demonstrate good performance across all four of its ambitions. He provided a brief summary of the strengths and challenges in performance across the four ambitions and drew attention to the in-depth focus of the performance report on ‘Every child & young person has the best possible start in life’. In particular County Councillor David Chance highlighted:

- The improved timeliness for referrals to the Early Help Service The 12% reduction in demand for support from the Children & Families Service
- The increase in children with SEN being educated in main stream schools
- The falling timeliness of health assessments for Looked After Children services

He also drew Members attention to key progress and challenges across the other ambitions, which included:

- The increase in website views as a result of increased access to online services and promotion of the digital first strategy
- The ongoing work to support the aspiration of carbon neutrality
- The sustained growth in the in the prevent, reduce and delay elements of the social care pathway
- The increase in referrals into both the Care & Support Team and the Living Well service
- The unsuccessful bid for ERDF funding for electric vehicle charging points
- The high number of placements for older people that were above the approved rates

County Councillor Janet Sanderson acknowledged the strong data and the fall in referrals to Children’s Social Care specifically, but drew attention to the underlying pressures, including the increase in the number of Early Help open cases over the last three months. It was noted that the Service was closely monitoring the situation. Members also noted the rise in second and subsequent Child Protection Plans.

County Councillor Patrick Mulligan highlighted the increase in EHC plans and confirmed that the County Council continued to lobby government in regard to the new SEND code of practice.

In response to a written question from County Councillor Janet Jefferson, Chair of the Children & Young People’s Overview & Scrutiny Committee, Stuart Carlton provided an overview of the ongoing work to address North Yorkshire’s attainment level at Key Stage 2.

County Councillor Annabel Wilkinson queried the reasons behind the downward trend for support from the Children & Families Services, and it was confirmed it was as a result of improved working with partners and improved access to advice and guidance at a local level. In regard to the fall in protection plans it was confirmed that numbers naturally rose and fell without any change in decision making. Finally, in regard to Ofsted’s new inspection framework, it was confirmed it was likely to impact more on North Yorkshire’s small rural schools that struggled to deliver the full breadth of curriculum.

County Councillor Stanley Lumley questioned the take up of the mileage allowance to parents and carers, and it was confirmed that take up had not been as high as hoped but that it was likely to increase over time as awareness of the option was raised with each new intake.

Members noted the performance update summary in regards to the other council ambitions i.e. Modern Council, Growth and Healthy & Independent Living.

County Councillor John Ennis queried what impact the financial pressures faced by Public Health would have upon their ability to continue to deliver key services and interventions, and it was noted that confirmation of government funding for the next 3-5 years was required to enable the Council to plan ahead with a focus on prevention and earlier intervention. County Councillor Gareth Dadd also suggested the focus should be entirely on outcomes not on inputs.

Finally, Richard Flinton, Chief Executive, confirmed that the recommendations arising from the ongoing Rural Commission would be reported to the Executive and then to Council. It was suggested that Overview and Scrutiny would have the opportunity to assess the findings as part of that process.

County Councillor Carl Les thanked officers for the exemplar report on performance and noted the County Council's strong performance across the board.

Revenue

County Councillor Gareth Dadd introduced the section of the report on the revenue budget, highlighting the minimal difference between Quarters 2 & 3. Attention was drawn to the projected net underspend of £6.4m mainly from the BES Directorate, an increase of £2,424k since the Q2 forecast. It was noted the underspend, in the main due to non-recurring savings, would offset the overspend pressures in other Directorates. It was also noted that the incurred costs as a result of the recent flooding were as yet unknown, but were expected to be in the region of £1m.

Members agreed the recommendations relating to the Revenue budget, as shown on page 81 of the report.
