Project WILD Educational Project	Thus far, as part of the project funded by the Eastern CEF, I have met with staff at Barlby High School and Riccall Primary to discuss the content of workshops that will be delivered. Furthermore, I have met with staff at SDDF to discuss the ways Project: WILD C.I.C. could make our content and materials more accessible to young people with disabilities. Much of the planning and development of content has been done at this stage.	NA	Mar 2019
	The project is progressing well, albeit slowly – it's very hard to rush schools into booking dates! All workshops are planned to be delivered in September/October. Currently we have confirmed that we will be working with: Barlby High School (4 days) Riccall Primary School (2 days) North Duffield Primary School (2 days) Cliffe Primary School (1 day) Escrick Primary School (2 days)

	And are awaiting final confirmations from: Barlby Primary School (c. 2-3 days) Cawood Primary School (c. 2 days) Wistow Primary School (c. 2 days) Hemingbrough Primary School (c. 2 days) Queen Margaret's School (c. 4 days) The latter two proving to be a bit of a challenge to get on board but I am confident that Barlby, Cawood and Wistow Primary will all be keen to get something booked in. The budget can stretch to allow for up to 20 days of in-school delivery (factoring in a bit of voluntary time) and thus far we have 11 days booked, with up to 9 to fill from the five schools yet to confirm. Most of the delivery materials have been developed. We hope to be able to confirm all bookings by the end of this term (19th July). We will, as stated in the application, be producing a short film following completion of delivery, and will compile feedback into a short form report.
