

NORTH YORKSHIRE COUNTY COUNCIL

Guidance to Members seeking a Dispensation from the Standards Committee

1.0 Introduction

- 1.1 Under paragraph 10 of the Code of Conduct for Members, and in accordance with the supporting statutory Guidance, a Member with a personal interest in any business of the authority also has a prejudicial interest if all the following conditions are met:
- a) the business is not exempt;
 - b) the business affects the Member's financial position (or a regulatory matter them) or that of any person or body through whom the Member has a personal interest; and
 - c) the interest is one which a member of the public with knowledge of the relevant facts would reasonably regard as so significant that it is likely to prejudice the Member's judgment of the public interest.
- 1.2 Under paragraph 12 of the Code, a Member with a prejudicial interest in such business must withdraw from the room or chamber where a meeting is being held either after making representations (where appropriate and if s/he wishes to do so) or, in any other case, whenever it becomes apparent that the business is being considered at that meeting UNLESS s/he has obtained a dispensation from the Standards Committee.

2.0 Scope

2.1 Circumstances where a dispensation may be granted

- 2.1.1 Under Section 81 of the Local Government Act 2000 and , the Standards Committee has power to grant a dispensation to a Member with a prejudicial interest in a matter, in certain circumstances (see below). _
- 2.1.2 Any dispensation granted will allow the Member to fully participate in the matter, including speaking and voting upon it.
- 2.1.3 The law prescribes that the Standards Committee may grant a dispensation :
- a)
 - (i)
 - (ii)

(i)

(ii)

the Member has submitted to the Standards Committee a written request for a dispensation, explaining why it is desirable; and the Standards Committee concludes, having regard to the above, the content of the application in (b) and circumstances of the case, that it is appropriate to grant the dispensation.

2. Restrictions on the granting of a dispensation

2.1 A dispensation cannot be granted, in respect of participation in business, for more than four years.

2.2 Dispensations cannot be granted to allow:

- a Member to a decision of which ; nor
- an individual Member of the Executive to exercise executive functions solely, where they are prohibited by the Code from doing so.

3.0 Guidance to Members Requesting a Dispensation

3.1 If a Member believes s/he has a personal interest in a matter which is also prejudicial s/he cannot take part and vote without a dispensation.

- 3.1. If either of applies then a Member may wish to consider applying for a dispensation from the Standards Committee. In those circumstances it would be advisable to discuss the proposed application with either the Monitoring Officer or the Principal Officer Democracy and Governance.
- 3.2 Requests for a dispensation should be made individually, using the form attached as Appendix 1, which is available from the Monitoring Officer or the Principal Officer Democracy and Governance. If the Member does not make an application the Standards Committee cannot consider a dispensation to that Member. This is so even if several other Members are affected by the same issue. Should each such Member wish to receive a dispensation then they must each submit an application on their own behalf using the form.

4.0 Completing the Application Form

4.1 The Standards Committee must be satisfied that there is a reason for dispensation ie that if a dispensation is not granted. They must also be satisfied that a Member has made an application in accordance with the Regulations. The Committee will then consider the content of the application and all the other circumstances of the case. In order for the Committee to properly consider these issues the Member should provide the following information:

- Details of the personal interest of the Member; if it involves the membership of another body, Members should outline the purpose of the body and its relationship, if any, with the County Council;
- Details of the decision or decisions in respect of which the Member will have a prejudicial interest;
- If appropriate, the date of the meeting and the item number of any particular decision due for consideration;
- The name of the relevant Council Officer who usually advises Members about the matter under consideration;
- Members should indicate the length and scope of the dispensation being sought: a dispensation cannot be longer than four years and it can be limited to a particular decision or apply to a number of decisions relating to the same issue;
- Finally, the Member will need to indicate why he or she considers that a dispensation should be given.

5.0 Submitting the Application

5.1 Once completed, the form should be sent to the Monitoring Officer

5.2 will then arrange for the Standards Committee to consider the application at its next meeting or, if the matter is urgent and will not wait until then, at a specially convened meeting of the Standards Committee.

5.3 The Member will be notified by of the date upon which the Standards Committee will consider the request.

6.0 Consideration of the Dispensation Request by the Standards Committee

6.1 At the appointed meeting, the completed application form will be considered by the Standards Committee, along with any other relevant information, in deciding whether or not to grant a dispensation to the Member.

6.2 The Standards Committee may seek information from the relevant Officer and may request the attendance of the Member to assist in understanding the nature of the relevant interest.

6.3 Once the Standards Committee has decided whether or not to grant a dispensation, the shall inform the Member as to the outcome of his/her application.

7.0 Recording a Dispensation

7.1 If the Standards Committee decides to grant a dispensation to the Member, then the will record, in writing, its existence, duration and nature.

7.2 The Monitoring Officer will ensure that a copy of the record is kept with the relevant Member's entry in the Register of Members' Interests.

8.0 Monitoring Dispensations

8.1 The Standards Committee will monitor the use made of dispensations granted by it.

9.0 Acting under a Dispensation

9.1 When acting under a dispensation granted to them by the Standards Committee, Members must at all times act, and appear to act, in the Council's best interests.
