- 4 Contract for the Provision of Independent Adoption Support Services

The Independent Adoption Support Service is a statutory service for the provision of a range of independent support services including support, counselling, advice, information, and mediation. It is proposed to re-procure the contract for the independent adoption arrangement with NYC carrying out the reprocurement of the contract and carrying out the continuing contract management on behalf of the other authorities as a traded service. This will bring the contract in line with other Adoption arrangements across Yorkshire and Humber
