17 Mar 2026	Executive		Sprucing Up Scarborough – High Street Rental Auction Pilot	Yes	To outline new powers provided by the Government under the Levelling Up And Regeneration Act 2023, High Street Rental Auctions (HSRA), which will aid the Council in tackling persistent vacant properties in our High Streets. The report seeks decision to conduct a pilot in Scarborough, with scope to extend to other areas if it is proving effective and not impacting heavily on resources.	Internally all relevant departments have been consulted and have inputted to the report. Externally, if consent is given to conduct the pilot, the wider community will be consulted on the area over which the powers will be applied. Consultations to date for Long Term Plan for Towns and Pride in Place show the top priority for local people and businesses is to see the condition of the town centre improved the HSRA powers directly support that objective.	For the designation of the HSRA area we will consult through multiple channels utilising our website, social media channels, local stakeholder groups, direct mail and traditional local media channels.
