Utilities Disruption

Utilities are the basic services used in your home or business to keep it functioning properly. This includes: water, electricity, gas, oil and fuel. Some utilities are dependent on others to work and an electricity network failure could affect a wide range of essential services. Even a local electricity outage could have a significant impact.

What could happen?

- People may lose power to heat their homes
- Disruption to essential services such as water supplies, transport, telecommunications, health care provision, the internet and schools
- Street light and security system failures
- Traffic light failures causing congestion

What can you do?

- Be prepared for an outage with an emergency kit in your home containing a wind-up torch/radio, supplies of tinned/dried food and drinking water
- If required, register as a vulnerable customer with relevant companies – call 0800 169 2996 to speak to Northern Powergrid Priority Services
- Stay alert for hoax callers posing as utility company workers

What are we doing?

- Identifying vulnerable people who would require assistance in the event of an electric network failure
- Working with local electricity companies, emergency services, local authorities and other utility companies to minimise the impact
- Creating comprehensive plans to handle a complete national outage

Elected members role in integrated emergency management

Each Area Constituency Committee is allocated a Resilience and Emergencies officer. They will attend your Area Committee annually and provide an update report. This will include:

Elected members training

- Helping identify the risks within your locality,
- The community resilience that has been developed,
- Identify resources, capability gaps, as well as
- Difficulties in communicating these risks to specific groups within your electoral division.

- Provide leadership in developing community resilience.
- Work with the locality Resilience and Emergencies officers to identify opportunities for funding resource gaps.
- Support training and exercises for community groups.
